

Kids Club Times

October 24, 2017

Welcome to the first Kids Club Times issue of the 2017 – 2018 School Year!

Halloween

By Rebecca A.

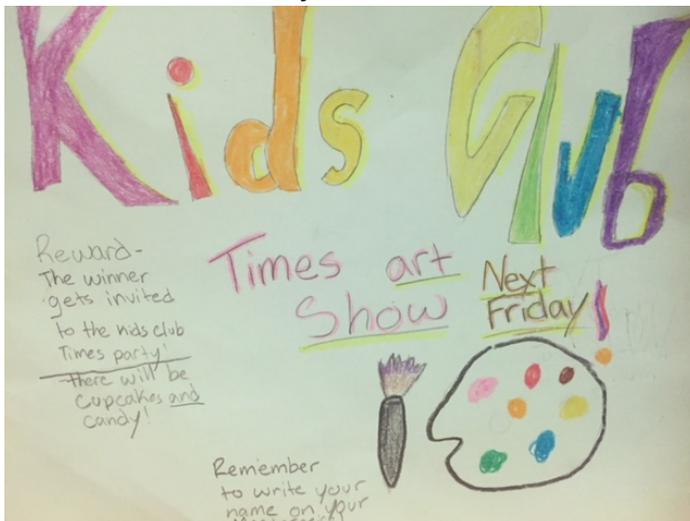

With Halloween approaching, the 4th and 5th graders put together a Haunted House. You can visit the Haunted House on Wednesday. We will have lots of surprises for the younger kids, and it will be spectacularly spooky! Kids and staff will dress up in costumes to celebrate the holiday.

Don't miss the Fall Social on Friday. There will be food, games, dancing, and lots of fun. Don't forget to wear your costume.

Art Show

By Wren M.

Submit your masterpiece for the monthly Kids Club Times Art Show. All entries will be displayed for everyone to admire. One entry will be selected each month as best in show. The winner will be invited to the Kids Club Times party, cupcakes, candy, and more. Turn in your masterpiece to the black envelope in the cafeteria by Thursday, November 2nd. Don't forget to write your name on your work! The winner will be announced on Friday, November 3rd.

Just gibberish

By Ruth S.

Once upon a time there lived a Hippo named Walter. Walter was a fairly normal hippo except he had a garden. Walter wished he could eat the wonderful fruits and vegetables out of his garden, but something always went wrong. This made Walter hungry. When Walter is hungry, Walter is grumpy, so Walter was always complaining. One day, his friend Gerald, the giraffe, sent him a package with a letter. The letter read, "Dear, Walter, I hope your garden is growing well. I thought you could use this. Sincerely, Gerald."

Excitedly, Walter tore open the package. Inside was a chicken coop with two large hens. He put the chicken coop right next to his tomato plant and went to bed. The next morning when he went to check on his tomatoes, the bush was nearly gone and the chickens were pecking out the remains. "No, my precious tomatoes!" he screamed
